Paula Oh really? And where is she having her party?

- Angela At her house. She wants to have a barbecue in her garden. The problem is that the weather forecast says it's going to rain tomorrow afternoon, and we won't be able to have a barbecue in the rain!
- Paula No, that's true. But you can cook the food inside instead.
- Angela Yes, I know. And lots of people are coming - all her friends and family - so I'm sure we'll have a great time, even if it rains!

WILL AND MIGHT

3. Put the words in the box in the correct places in the text.

• might (x2) • will (x3) • won't

I love designing clothes, so I will probably study fashion design at art school. I've made a lot of clothes and I don't really know what to do with them - I might start selling them on the internet. My mum's a businesswoman so she will probably help me. But my dad wants me to study medicine, so he probably won't like my ideas. All my friends are into clothes and the internet. They will probably work with me too. If we do well, we might open a shop in our local shopping centre.

• he / have to / wait a few minutes	• I / call / you

There was another example of the increase in crime in the town last night, when a local woman was mugged as she walked home from the shops. It is the second time in a month that Tina Davies, aged 43, has been the victim of criminals. Two weeks ago her house was burgled while she was on holiday and the thieves escaped with a computer worth £600. Local people were already worried about criminal activity after a number of recent cases of shoplifting.
